FRENCH LICK, Ind. – On Saturday, the Springs Valley Blackhawk Brigade will be performing in the ISSMA Marching Band State Championship in the new Lucas Oil Stadium at 4:10pm.

This will be Springs Valley's 19th appearance at the state championships since their first in 1975. The Brigade will also be making their third consecutive appearance to the championship since they went four straight years from 1991-94.

Tickets for State Finals will be on sale in the Springs Valley High School office until noon on Friday. Tickets will also be available at the door of Lucas Oil Stadium.

Joining the Brigade will be the Pride of Paoli, who will be making their 24th appearance at State Finals. The Pride takes the field at 4:36pm.

Awards for the State Championship at scheduled for 6:30pm.

The Orleans Bulldog Regiment did not advance to the state championship, but will be performing for the Class AA Mid-States Championship in Beavercreek, Ohio. They take the field at 12:00 noon in semi-final action. If they place in the top ten, they will compete in the finals between 7:00-9:15pm.
