FRENCH LICK, Ind. – All three local bands will compete in the ISSMA (Indiana State School Music Association) District Contest this Saturday at Jasper's Alumni Stadium.

The Springs Valley Blackhawk Brigade, fresh off their national performance in Indianapolis, looks to obtain a gold rating at District for the fifth consecutive time and twenty-sixth overall in school history. They take the field at 11:26 a.m.

The Pride of Paoli takes to Alumni Stadium following their Grand Champion performance at Floyd Central. The Pride takes the field at 1:23 p.m.

The Bulldog Regiment of Orleans is back from the Blue Grass state where they placed second in Class 2A competition at the Ballard Mid-States contest. Orleans will perform at 1:49 p.m.

Awards for Class D will begin roughly at 2:30p.m. Each band must reach a score set by the ISSMA staff to advance to the Jeffersonville South Regional on October 18.
